Warrior of the Week

This week's Warrior of the Week has A's and high B's in all of his honors classes. He's always trying to improve his work to become a better writer in his composition class. He is a leader in Student Government, he is willing to do any and everything to participate and help create a stronger culture of brotherhood at Boys' Latin. He is humble about his abilities and does not showboat his strengths in the classroom. His peers know that he is a source of support if they need help or have a question because he is always ready to help when he is asked. He is universally respected by his teachers and his peers. For his integrity in leadership, scholarship in honors classes and brotherhood to help his classmates, I take great pleasure in announcing Marquise McDaniel as our Warrior of the Week.
